

This course is an introduction to problem solving strategies for success on Mathcounts and MAC 8. This spring semester has 17 one hour lessons. The participant students will do competition tests selected from school and chapter sprint rounds of years between 2012 to 2017.