🔗 闭幕式暨新春晚会精彩花絮回放 🔗

第二届“太古-瑞华杯文化大赛”圆满落下帷幕。活动闭幕式暨春节晚会，也于上周六(2月12日)晚于线上顺利举行。晚会中，瑞华的学生们用他们各自的才艺，为晚会增添一笔又一笔的靓丽色彩。。。

音乐响起，伴随着“万疆”歌声，几位佳人翩翩起舞，动作自然流畅，有细节但不做作，这是徐梅老师成人舞蹈班的表演。

徐梅老师教授每一支舞蹈都很美，动作细腻有韵味，表达着丰富情感和意境，无论是怎样的舞蹈基础，都会有不同的收获，同学们跳得意犹未尽，往往“欲罢不能”。。。

“我参加瑞华中文学校一到三点广场舞班有三年半了，是这个班儿的铁粉。每周六送孩子来瑞华上中文课的两个小时就是我在这个班练习广场舞的时间。非常庆幸遇到徐梅老师和各位新老舞友，参加这个班是我搬到Naperville以来个人生活上最大的收获。

参加广场舞班的好处可不仅仅是锻炼身体，还能怡情悦性，提高审美，促进社交和友谊。指导老师徐梅非常有耐心，对待每个学员都像亲姐妹一样。不论以前的基础如何，在她班上学跳舞，都可以提高舞艺，收获满满。徐梅老师为广场舞班选舞题材不限，大胆涉猎风格迥异的各大舞种。虽然广场舞的动作相对简单易学，徐老师选的舞都各具特色，风格明显。这里既能学到古典舞的婀娜妩媚，也能学到中国各民族舞蹈的基本特色，还有拉丁舞的性感，现代舞的奔放。徐梅老师每次教完一支舞会拍一个她亲自跳的示范视频发到群里帮大家日常对照练习，自觉纠正姿势。

我们班每年都有一年在瑞华春节晚会展示的机会。瑞华春晚表演的参与本着自愿的原则，大家没有负担，参加的玩的不亦乐乎，不参加的看的眉开眼笑。每年春晚的参演作品徐老师都会悉心指导，精心编排，保证演出的质量..

还很值得一提的是我们广场舞班的气氛非常友好，大家互相尊重，互相帮助，互相鼓励。每周六我们都很享受这一段学跳舞的时光。喜欢跳舞的朋友们欢迎来参加我们瑞华中文学校周六广场舞班这个快乐的大家庭。”

Junior 1st Place - “Into the Icy Water”, Brayden Di

It's the first day of school, and five students have been reported missing. No one could focus on their assignments, and everyone wanted to talk about what happened. Everywhere, there was a great deal of chattering about it. Teachers hopelessly tried to calm everyone down, but there was no use.

"Everyone, settle down please," Mrs. Brown called. Her voice was drowned out by the continuous chatting about the disappearance of the five kids.

"I remember one of them waving to me before getting on the school bus," one kid whispered to someone else.

"Settle down, or I'm assigning extra homework!" Mrs. Brown demanded. That silenced everyone.

The day passed slower than usual, and all the students slumped into their buses, tired as worn-out shoes. On bus number 41, everyone once again began chatting about it.

All of a sudden, the students heard the bus driver cackling menacingly as if she lost her mind. The bus driver turned around, green pimples quickly sprouting on her ugly face. She stared back with deadly eyes. Many students screamed, and someone even buried his face into his backpack. The bus stopped abruptly at a deserted area. Several robots outside motioned the students to get off. Everyone was too scared to get off, hiding behind the seats. Some robots climbed onto the bus, forcing the students off the bus and pushing them into a weird-looking building. The students were shaking with fear, unable to say anything. Entering the building, they saw many jail cells. When they passed by a cell, someone stealthily slid an envelope to one student - Jackson. Clutching the envelope, Jackson entered one cell. The odor in the cell was horrible. It was really dirty, with mold on the side of the walls.

After the robots left, Jackson opened the envelope and found a letter:

I'm an artificial intelligence professor. I am very sorry to tell you that you got kidnapped by the robots I invented.

They were supposed to be good robots, but while testing them, there was a bug in the code and they went deranged. Now, they are capturing you to release a deadly virus to make you pass it on to others and eliminate human beings.

Here is a USB. If you plug it into the Central Control Server, which is at the bottom of the artificial lake with icy water, the robots will shut down. A map to the lake is on the back.

Please save us. Save the world.

You are my last hope.

Professor Wiseman

Jackson showed everyone the letter, causing chaos and confusion.

"So... we need someone to go to the bottom of the lake..." someone trailed off, realizing what would happen.

Some students quickly dipped their heads, muttering "I don't know how to swim," or, "I can't hold my breath for that long." A voice uttered, "No one is gonna do that, and we're all gonna get a virus!" Everybody knows this is a perilous mission.

Unexpectedly, Jackson announced bravely, "I'll go."

A short silence followed his statement.

"I can hold my breath longer than normal. I took diving classes and I'm good at swimming."

Looking at him with shocked gasps and open mouths, the students did not know what to say.

He continued, "Let's figure out how to get me out of the cell."

All the students discussed it for quite a while, hatching a plan. They finally came up with a good idea.

The next day, while the robot came to deliver lunch, Jackson hid under the food cart and escaped from the cell. Following the map, he barely sneaked past a few robots patrolling the grounds. At last, he arrived at the icy lake with the Central Control Server at the bottom. Looking at the icy water, his family and friends appeared in his mind. Tears streaked down his face as all the happy memories floated around in his mind. "I love you, mom and dad," he said to himself. Closing his eyes, he jumped in.

The icy water was like a thousand tiny needles pricking his skin. He shook back his fear and swam downward toward the Server. As he swam deeper and deeper, the water got colder and colder, paralyzing his brain. His muscles were screaming to make him stop, but he never gave up and kept thinking about everybody waiting for him, relying on him.

Weakened from fatigue and tiredness, he swam slower and slower, finally reaching the Server. The USB slot on the server was only two feet away now, but to him, it felt like a thousand miles away. With all the strength he could muster, he clenched the USB tightly and slammed it into the slot. He could feel that death was near, as he couldn't hold his breath any longer. Kicking off from the ground, he swam up, and his whole body began to feel numb. Flailing his arms as hard as he can, he began to slowly rise from the deep, icy water. I'm so close, please, don't do this... He could see light shimmering on the top of the waters, but he had used every last ounce of strength, and slowly, he closed his eyes as darkness swallowed him up...

Instantly, every robot crashed, and all the cells unlocked. Everybody was cheering, "He made it! He made it! Jackson made it! He is our hero!"

Everyone rushed to the lake to see how Jackson was doing. They found him lying on the bottom of the waterless lake. Has Jackson died? There were gasps and cries. They hastily slid down to the bottom on the damp dirt to check on him. A few students performed CPR over and over again, but it was no use. They desperately gave it one last try, and to their relief, Jackson suddenly spat out some water and slowly woke up...

Thanks to Jackson's brave and heroic act, everybody was saved!
